

SERVANT LEADERSHIP

Lunch 'n Learn

December 17, 2019, 11:30-1:15 p.m.

The Lodge at Mauston, 104 Lodge Lane, Mauston, WI 53948

THE LODGE

at MAUSTON

Tom Thibodeau

Professor of Servant Leadership
Master of Arts Director in Servant
Leadership at Viterbo University

Tom Thibodeau is a distinguished Professor of Servant Leadership at Viterbo University where he has taught for 33 years. He is founder of the Master of Arts in Servant Leadership, the only Master's degree of its kind in the nation. Tom is a popular professor, talented public speaker and an active community member from Wisconsin Rapids. Since coming to Viterbo in 1984 his infectious enthusiasm, compassion, and commitment to leadership and service have inspired students and countless colleagues and community members. He is also a founding member of hospitality and fellowship resource Place of Grace in La Crosse. He regularly leads the Ethical Life seminars and offers a Serving the Common Good seminar focused on homelessness. Tom is a husband, father, grandfather, teacher, active community member and part owner of a country tavern.

- Five keys to being happy
- Discovering meaning in your life
- What legacy are you leaving behind?
- Giving back to your community
- What about Servant Leadership?

Alan Peterson

"Tom Thibodeau is one of the best speakers I have ever heard. His message is motivating, humorous, and touches all that hear him speak. I am proud to be a personal sponsor for him to be here in December at Juneau County for the benefit of the County Board, County Department Heads, and the public."

Alan Peterson, County Board Chair, Juneau County

~ Testimonial ~

"Tom's perspective on leadership is truly humbling and reminds us how positivity (and negativity) is contagious. He is a dynamic speaker that weaves in real life experiences and stories to demonstrate servant leadership principles."

Amanda Dederich, Health Officer, Juneau County Health Department

As an Associate Professor and Community Resource and Economic Development Agent for the UW-Madison Division of Extension in Juneau County, Kirking works with communities, organizations, and business and industry in the areas of strategic planning and problem solving, economic and business development, and new business startups to help them develop and maintain a competitive advantage in the marketplace. Kirking coordinates the Juneau County Lunch 'n Learn Professional Development Series, and Advanced Leadership Program and served as Co-Chair of the Leadership Wisconsin International Seminar. He has helped over 500 start-up companies in western Wisconsin and has presented his work on rural development and entrepreneurship internationally. In 1999 Governor Tommy Thompson recognized Kirking for having one of the top rural development initiatives in Wisconsin. He is a certified Achieve Global facilitator, a Dale Carnegie Graduate Assistant and completed the full Covey 7 Habits coursework.

Gary Kirking

As part of the Lunch 'n Learn Educational Program Series brought to you by Juneau County Extension

RSVP by December 4, 2019 4:00 pm

glkirking@wisc.edu / 608-847-9329

Pre - registration is appreciated due to limited seating and meal planning.

$25 Includes lunch and program.

Make checks payable to 'Juneau County Treasurer'

Extension
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON
JUNEAU COUNTY

The University of Wisconsin-Madison does not discriminate in its employment practices and programs and activities on a variety of bases including but not limited to: age, color, disability, national origin, race, or sex. For information on all covered bases, the names of the Title IX and Americans with Disabilities Act Coordinators, and the processes for how to file a complaint alleging discrimination, please contact the Office of Compliance, 361 Bascom Hall, 500 Lincoln Drive, Madison WI 53706, Voice 608-265-6018, (relay calls accepted); Email: uwcomplianceoffice@wisc.edu.